

The full memory exists before the model forgets

A resolved pore-scale simulation contains geometry, velocity history, path order, and particle neighborhoods.

a memory-rich pore world

b trajectory histories

fast channel
velocity history

slow/tortuous path
path order

pair divergence
neighborhood loss

near encounter
reaction opportunity

c what reduced models discard reduced model

cannot keep
the whole history

which forgetting
is safe?